2.2 Voting

- 2.2.1 Only members in the categories of Full, Flexible, Life, or Intermediate membership, i.e. categories 2.1.1A,B,C,D,E. are entitled to vote at any general meeting of the club.
- 2.2.2 Voting at a general meeting of the club shall be either by a show of hands or ballot at the meeting concerned. When ballots are required for the election of a President, Officer or members of the Committee of Management the ballot shall take place over a period prior to the meeting as specified in the relevant rule.
- 2.2.3 There are no rights for proxy or postal voting except as specified in 6.2 Extraordinary General Meeting – Rule 6.2.9.

2.3 Transfers between categories

- 2.3.1 Members may transfer between the various categories of membership with the approval of the Committee of Management.

2.4 New members

- 2.4.1 Membership of the Club shall be open to anyone interested in the sport regardless of sex, age, disability, ethnicity, nationality, sexual orientation, religion or other beliefs. Prospective members shall complete a form of application, obtainable from the Club Manager.

- 2.4.2 The Committee of Management may refuse membership, for good cause such as conduct or character likely to bring the Club or the sport into disrepute. Appeal against any refusal may be made in writing to the Trustees. The Trustees shall then meet with the prospective member and a member of the Committee of Management to ascertain the reasons for the refusal. After hearing from both parties, they will, within 14 days, make a decision as to whether the prospective member shall be admitted to the Club or the refusal shall be upheld. If any Trustee should be a serving member of the Committee of Management then he may not take part in the appeal process.
- 2.4.3 If the Committee of Management decide in favour of admitting the prospective member they shall be notified accordingly and will immediately become liable to pay the annual subscription and joining fee in accordance with rule 3.
- 2.4.4 Upon such payment, the prospective member shall become a member and be entitled to the privileges afforded to that class of membership. Until such time as they have become members, prospective members are considered as visitors and shall only use the facilities of the club upon payment of the appropriate fee.
- 2.4.5 Prior to playing on the course, the new member must attend a meeting with the Club Manager or the Club Pro at which matters such as the expected standards of behaviour and etiquette on the course, together with matters relating to health and safety etc. will be discussed.

2.5 Resignations

- 2.5.1 Any member desiring to resign from the club should give notice in writing of their intention to the Club Manager.

2.6 Expulsion or suspension of members

- 2.6.1. The Committee shall have power to admonish, suspend for a period not exceeding 12 months on such terms as it thinks fit or to expel a member who infringes any of these rules or whose conduct whether within or without the confines of the Clubhouse and the Course is in the opinion of the Committee injurious to the good name of the Club or renders him unfit for membership. No person shall be suspended or expelled without first being summoned before the Committee and full opportunity afforded to him to advance a defence nor unless three quarters of the Committee then present shall vote on his suspension or expulsion.
- 2.6.1.1 The Committee shall have power to suspend any member from membership of the Club pending the hearing of the case against him.
- 2.6.1.2 Complaints received by the Club concerning the conduct of any member should be recorded in writing by the Manager/ and then referred to the Committee for its consideration.
- 2.6.2 The member may explain their conduct in writing or orally to a meeting of the Committee of Management and may call any witnesses.
- 2.6.3 If no explanation is given or if the Committee of Management remain of the opinion that such conduct was not in the best interests of the club, they shall inform the member of his expulsion by recorded delivery letter. The decision of the Committee of Management shall be taken by secret ballot.
- 2.6.4 If the member is dissatisfied with the decision of the Committee of Management they may, within one month of the date of the letter referred to above, request in writing that the matter be considered by the voting members at an Extraordinary General Meeting. The committee shall then convene such meeting. If no such request is made, the member shall be considered to have been expelled.
- 2.6.5 If an Extraordinary General Meeting is so called, the Committee of Management shall explain to the meeting their reasons for considering that the member should be expelled. The member may explain their conduct in writing or orally to the meeting and may call any witnesses but may not be represented legally or otherwise by a third party.
- 2.6.6 The members present that are eligible to vote shall then vote by secret ballot. If more than two thirds of the votes cast are in favour of the expulsion of the member, he shall thereupon cease to be a member of the club. If the appeal is allowed, the member will be considered to have been reinstated.
- 2.6.7 Any member expelled from the club shall, upon ceasing to be a member, forfeit all right to and claim upon the club and it's property and funds.

2.6 Introduction of guests

- 2.6.1 Members may invite guests to the club on such terms and upon payment of such fee as the Executive Committee of Management shall from time to time determine. The member is responsible for ensuring that the guest signs the visitors book obtainable from the steward or the professional. Guests may only remain at the club for as long as the member introducing them is present.
- 2.6.2 Members may introduce playing guests to the course at a reduced green fee. Guests must play with the sponsoring member.
- 2.6.3 Visiting Golfers as members of other golf club, overseas visitors and non-club members will, on the payment of a green fee, be regarded as a guest of the club and its members.
